

Sweet Isabel

Enrique Iglesias

The autumn leaves are falling
Like tears from her eyes
There's no use in recalling
The pain you felt inside And I know you're feeling
Like you should run away, run away
And I know you're wandering
Oh, why you should stay? Why you should stay? Sweet, sweet Isabel
Just believe it well be alright
Sweet, sweet Isabel
No, you don't have to be tonight You'll feel the changes coming
But you were so afraid in time
I know your heart's been broken
Oh, way too many times And I know you're feeling
Like you should run away, run away Sweet, sweet Isabel
Just believe it well be alright
Sweet, sweet Isabel
No, you don't have to be tonight You don't have to be tonight
No, you don't have to be tonight
You don't have to be tonight
No, you don't have to be tonight, no you don't Sweet, sweet Isabel
Just believe it well be alright
Sweet, sweet Isabel
No, you don't have to be tonight The autumn leaves are falling
Like tears from her eyes
There's no use in recalling
The pain you felt inside
