Yellow King

I See Stars

I've had this dream before
It's just the ghost of the once was
A fool just like before
The same exact sad outcomeI've meant my enemy
And it seems we tried to work it out
You're just the ghost of the once wasBut the stars aren't far enough
For you to grab them
Right out of the sky
There ain't no doubt about itYou ain't no child trying to drive a fast car, no
You ain't no friend of mineNobody seems to fear the truth more than me
It seems I have a darkness
But I can leave it all behind if you let me
Only if you let me
Only if you let meSo lay it on me
So lay it on me
It seems you're so scared of taking chances I'm not
So lay it on me
So lay it on me
I feel the rainReoccuring dreams
Pulling out my teeth
In a crowded white roomI try to run or yell
This is my hell
My legs won't moveI've had this dream before
It's just the ghost of the once was
A fool just like before
The same exact sad outcomeI've had this dream before
You're just the ghost of the once wasBut the stars aren't far enough
For you to grab them
Right out of the sky
There ain't no doubt about itYou ain't no child trying to drive a fast car, no
You ain't no friend of mineNobody seems to fear the truth more than me
It seems I have a darkness
But I can leave it all behind if you let me
Only if you let me
Only if you let meAll this time
I've been waiting to let you go
All this time
I've been waiting to let you go
All this time

I've been waiting to let you go
All this time
I've been waiting to let you goSo lay it on me
So lay it on me
It seems you're so scared of taking chances I'm not
So lay it on me
So lay it on me
I feel the rain
