Crusoe

Cinerama

You can't start a sentence like that and not end it
You can't write a letter like that and not send it
If you look away again i
Might ask you to explain whyYou haven't really told me anything
The silence when you hold me is deafeningYou can't get a 'phone call like that and not tell me
You can't lie with him in our bed and not smell me
Might ask you to explain whyYou haven't really told me anything
The silence when you hold me is deafening
