

Blue Sky (feat. Keith Urban)

Emily West

So your conscience finally hit you
And you're feeling guilty
And you're wishing I was there
So you wanna say you're sorry Well, please forgive me if I'm too gone to care
You can take back your goodbyes
Wipe off those sad eyes
'Cause I've got some tears of my own Weather man says it's gonna rain tonight
The kind of storm where the basement floods and you lose the lights
Should have thought of that before
'Cause I'm not your blue sky anymore So you heard the pitter-patter of a lost heart beating
And learned what it was for
So you made a list of shoulders
That you'd be needing Well mine aren't yours anymore
Come on, show me your temper
Be the man I remember
So I won't forget what you've done Weather man says it's gonna rain tonight
The kind of storm where the basement floods and you lose the lights
You should have thought of that before
'Cause I'm not your blue sky anymore The weather man says it's gonna rain tonight
The kind of storm where the basement floods and you lose the lights
You should have thought of that before
'Cause I'm not your blue sky anymore, don't wanna be that blue sky
I'm not your blue sky anymore
