

Eye for an Eye

Fran Drescher

Thought you had my back
Well you can be so selfish
And time will never be golden
When it rains so hard Taking an eye for an eye
Taking an eye for an eye If I was a sailor
I would skim the waters
I would rail the riptide
Just to be here by your side Taking an eye for an eye
Taking an eye for an eye
Taking an eye for an eye
Taking an eye for an eye All the hills were burning
All the streets were burning
All the homes, they were burning
The whole town was burning Taking an eye for an eye
Taking an eye for an eye
Taking an eye for an eye
Taking an eye for an eye I'm taking an eye for an eye
I'm taking an eye for an eye
I'm taking an eye for an eye Taking an eye for an eye
Taking an eye for an eye
Taking an eye for an eye
Taking an eye for an eye
Taking an eye for an eye
Taking an eye for an eye
