

Heloise

Line of Sky

She's been crying so long I hear her starting to pray every once in a while I want you every once in a while hear me oh, God I'm still down at the convent they sent you far away they took your only boy you will get used to me welcome to your new joy down here serving the priests
