This Is Goodbye

Calico System

If there wasn't so much tension you could've confided yourself in me
If there wasn't so much tension
you could've confided yourself in meThe only reason I come back here
The reason I come back here because you were lonelyAnother nightmare of mine
I'll bring flowers for you next time
You didn't have to die if you were lonelyThe only reason I come back here
The reason I come back here because you were lonelyAnother nightmare of mine
I'll bring flowers for you next time
You didn't have to die if you were lonelyYou lived, passing angels by to embrace death
I can't fathom it, pick your body up off the pavement
You left all your loved ones behind without a though or one last goodbye
Thoughtless choice
Murderer
Confided in me, confided in meThe only reason I come back here
The reason I come back here because you were lonelyAnother nightmare of mine
I'll bring flowers for you next time
You didn't have to die if you were lonely
