

Next On The List

Napalm Death

Such a smug parasite
Snug in the comfort zone
We stepped back and watched
While you violated
Our effects, our spirits, our souls Opportunist scum
Think you're so immune?
Opportunist scum
We yearn to see you removed Opportunist scum
Truly spineless cunt
Opportunist scum
Basks in his loathsome glow Where once I was passive
I'm ready to snap
A pound of flesh
For those that you've taken That smiling surround
Can't shield you forever
When it slips
We'll be there to fuck your world A slap in the face
A slap in the face Don't turn your back
Don't lower your guard
Or assume you're safe
Around fellow sharks 'Cause when I catch that Patronizing smirk
(It)
Strengthens my will
To smash your worthless bulk A slap in the face
A slap in the face
A slap in the face Goodbye to logic
For this necessary justice
Goodbye to logic
For this necessary justice
