

Anything For You

Vic and Gab

My love you got a hand
Of wanting everything and now you're sad
My love you got a hand
Of patience paper thin and now you're sad And I told you to be better
And I told you that I loved you anyway
But you wanted to be bitter
And you wanted me to run away Come on and laugh a little bit
Come on and try a little bit
I'd try for you My best friend went away
Went so far away I miss her everyday
She's got someone new
She says its not like me and you
But I know its a lie
I know its a lie And I wrote it in a letter yeah
I told her that I loved her anyway
But she wanted something better
And she wanted me to run away Come on and laugh a little bit
Come and try a little bit
Come on and laugh a little bit
Come and try a little but
I'd try for you It could be like it's been
It could be like it's been
If you'd only ask me to
It could be like it's been
It could be like it's been
If you'd only tell me to Come on and laugh a little bit
Come and try a little bit
Come on and laugh a little bit
Come and try a little but
I'd try for you
