No Distance

Kenoly Brothers

Loving you, has never felt more right this night. Love is falling from the skies, with heaven in your eyes.
I always knew it would come down to you and I. In this picture perfect love filled moment, let's take our time.
So tonight is ours, tomorrow isn't, we're stuck in between
I understand there's no hard feelings, even though I have to leave.
But give me just one night where the world will go missing, when we're together with no distance from you and me.
It's like the world is closing around us and we're doing just fine (we're doing just fine baby)
Even if it pulls us apart cuz we'll still be alright (we'll still be alright)
I know we'll be together after two worlds collide. No matter how far we are from each other, there's no distance from you and I.
Sometimes our paths change, and we may separate. But how we feel stays the same, just get through day by day.
But we will always have each other and tonight, for sure. So when I come back next time, it'll be just like before, so tonight is our worse tomorrow isn't. We're stuck in between. I understand there's no hard feelings, even though I have to leave.
But give me just one night where the world will go missing, when we're together with no distance from you and me.

It's like the world's closing around us and we're doing just fine (we're doing just fine).
Even if it pulls us apart, cuz we'll still be alright (we'll still be alright)
I know we'll be together after two worlds collide, no matter how far we are from each other, there's no distance from you and I. (no distance)
Another moment for today, cuz right now you're everything. I feel so complete, when you're with me.
Remember all the yesterdays, cuz tomorrow still won't change. There is no distance between me and my baby.
It's like the worlds closing around us and we're doing just fine (doing just fine). Even if it pulls us apart cuz we'll still be alright. (still be alright)
I know we'll be together after two worlds collide. No matter how far we are from each other, there's no distance from you (no distance baby)
It's like the worlds closing around us and we're doing just fine, even if it pulls us apart cuz we'll still be alright.
I know we'll be together after two worlds collide, no matter how far we are from each other, there's no distance from you and I,
Got no distance between you and I
Got no distance between you and I
Go no distance between you and I
You and I
