Show Some Emotion

Aaron Neville

I've tried my best for so long
To break down these walls
But you build them strong
So I stand here waiting, wondering why
Oh, why?
Why you don't give a little bit
Break down and give a little bit?
Show, show some emotion
Open, open your heart
Set free an ocean
Only a feeling can save us now
You say you've been hurt
Well, you're not alone
As you race through this life
What you keep to yourself
Can turn you to stone
All it would take is one kind word
To be heard
Come on and give a little bit
Try to forgive a little bit
Show, show some emotion
Open, open your heart
Set free an ocean
Only a feeling can save us now
Show, show some emotion
Open, open your heart
Set free an ocean
Only a feeling can save us now
Show some emotion
Open, open your heart
Set free an ocean
Only a feeling can save us now
