Check You Out

Darin

Stopped in my tracks
Caught in her eyes
And my heart's beating fast
And all that chemo was this corny lieI hope that you know CPR
'Cause girl you take my breath away
No, I can't believe that I just said that
What I really meant to sayIs that I know that smile has broken a couple hearts
You're used to always getting what you want
Drop dead beautiful, knows how to knock them down
Oh girl, oh girl, check you outYeah, that smile has broken a couple hearts
You're used to always getting what you want
Drop dead beautiful, knows how to knock them down
Oh girl, oh girl, check you outI tried to relax
But my tongue kept getting tied
The star and land
But nothing seemed to come out rightGirl, I know you must be tired
'Cause you've been running through my mind all day
Yeah, I know I can't believe that I just said that
What I really meant to sayIs that I know that smile has broken a couple hearts
You're used to always getting what you want
Drop dead beautiful, knows how to knock them down
Oh girl, oh girl, check you outYeah, that smile has broken a couple hearts
You're used to always getting what you want
Drop dead beautiful, knows how to knock them down
Oh girl, oh girl, check you outOh-oh-oh-oh, ch-ch-ch-check you out
Oh-oh-oh-oh, check you out
Oh-oh-oh-oh, ch-ch-ch-check you out
Oh-oh-oh-oh, check you outOh, that smile has broken a couple hearts
That, that smile has broken, that smile
Yeah, I know I can't believe that I just said that
What I really meant to sayCheck you out
Yeah, that smile has broken a couple hearts
You're used to always getting what you want
Drop dead beautiful, knows how to knock them down
Oh girl, oh girl, check you outOh-oh-oh-oh, ch-ch-ch-check you out
You're used to always getting what you want
Drop dead beautiful, knows how to knock them down
Oh girl, oh girl, check you outCheck you out,
Oh girl, oh girl, check you out

Check you out,
Oh girl, oh girl, check you out
