

It Has Been Awhile

Vonrenzo

It read, "How are you, it has been awhile"
Believe me I know, you're every thought
And this makes Four Hundred and Ninety-Seven Days
Where I must say
That I feel, I feel the same, same way, this way...
All I want is you
And all I'll ever want is you, said
Heart still beating for you, it's always you...
I watch you, when I close my eyes
Believe me I know, you're all I see
And at night I dream that you
Still love me too, even if it's untrue,
But I won't assume, no
All I want is you
And all I'll ever want is you
Heart still beating here now...
And I'm still being here now...
You're all I want...
