Pain In The World

Danzig

Heart full of hell, room to burn
Heart full of something unclean, dreadful to know
Fair in the mirror, hard on the soul
They should have known it from birth
Pain had come to this worldCrying
Pain has come to the world
Dying
Pain in the worldHeart full of sin, breeds so slow
Should have killed it from birth, this treacherous son
Angel of wisdom, see how it's grown
Agonies bastard of lies, coming down uponCrying
Pain has come to the world
Dying
Pain in the worldHeart full of hell, indifferent and cold
Heart full of misery's seed, you should've learned
Hate is your mirror, like it or don't
Angel of suffering smiles coming down from aboveCrying
Pain has come to this world
Dying
Pain in this world
Crying, dying
