Homecoming

Keith Whitley

Homecoming '63
I was so proud you went with me Everyone turned their head when we walked in They said look at that perfect pair as you blushed from all their stares and my chest swelled up with pride grinning from ear to ear inside an hour full of dance and fun an hour later and I gunned my '57 off to heaven back seat lovin' girl you were somethin'CHORUS
Home coming '63
You went home with the love you gave to me
You turned me on to extasy Homecoming '63What a night that was for us I remember plain as day the touch I felt when I felt your love melt in my arms and that old and pleated back seat bed I pleaded with you and instead of the usual no you said yes you let gorepeat chorus
