My Revelation

Liv Kristine

You're the line I follow in my life
Two seperate minds but one lousy excuse
Wasting time, I'm slipping throught life
I'm in a bad movie with a predictable endMy revelation is waiting for you
You keep on denying, denying the truth
My revelation's waiting for you, waiting for youMy revelation is waiting for you
You keep on denying, denying the truth
My revelation's waiting for you....You're the contrast in my own self
Two different bodies but one reason to make love
Silly games in a book of pleasure
We're a bad clich in a cheap short story
