Primal Scream

They tore down the Berlin wall
They let the hammer and sickle fall
They fitted me for a uniform
Had it ready the day I was born
I destroy everyone I love
I destroy everything I touch
I don't own my own skin
All I got is original sin
Brought down in a broken home
Mixed blood, brittle bones

I destroy everyone I love
I destroy everything I touch
Love sex, female hex
Open eyes, empty legs
No release, exist to cease
Gimme a knife, break my teeth
They tore down the Berlin wall
They tore down the Berlin wall
They tore down the Berlin wall
They tore down the Berlin wall
