

Deeds of Days Long Gone

Ignominious Incarceration

And as the dust begins to clear
The body revealed our broken hero
Stripped of life left for dead

And as he stares into the newborn rising sun
The light of truth will finally shine upon the darkness of ignorance
Now all that remains are these memories of days long gone.

His sacrifice The life he lived or the life he served
He gave his life to save this world with no thought of his own

And as the light begins to fade away from his withering world
The light will shine again for us for he has saved our souls
Gone but not forgotten he will be remembered
Gone but not forgotten he has saved our souls.

---

Lyrics submitted by Cory Bonds.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>