Overload

Dot Rotten

Inhale, exhale Im tired of it
I dont wanna breathe
I just wanna leave
Or Ill be stuck here till my soul flies
Inhale, exhale Im tired of it
I dont wanna breathe
Whats the point me being here
I just wanna leave
Can you show me to the pain killer killer killer
I've been searching for a pain killer killer killer
Can you show me to the pain killer killer killer
I've been looking for a pain killer killer killer
Overload!Overload!
They want us to do as were told
Distract us from the truth so we can lose as they grow
I put my life on the line thats just to let you know
My Heads spinning heads spinning
Its a overload!You might see me behaving crazy
You might see me behaving road
Sometimes I wonder to myself whats going on am I all on my own
Oh I can feel it somethings going on around us
But we jus cant see it too many lights when the truth is needed
You been playing games
You are planning to destroy everything we have made
Everything we come upon you leave it in a grave
Truth is I dont wanna fly in the air
The world Im ins collapsing why am I here
I need a pain killer and time to prepare!
I swear!Inhale, exhale Im tired of it
I dont wanna breathe
I just wanna leave
Or Ill be stuck here till my soul flies
Inhale, exhale Im tired of it
I dont wanna breathe
Whats the point my being here
I just wanna leave
Can you show me to the pain killer killer killer
I've been searching for a pain killer killer killer
Can you show me to the pain killer killer killer

I've been looking for a pain killer killer killer
Overload!
