

Ordinary High

City Sleeps

Daddy's girl's kissin' herself in the mirror
Supposed to be tucked into bed just fine
That was before the decision to dial my number
I said, "Pick up the phone and call sometime" In your white room those windows are the way to the dimensional
I can show you how it goes, princess Look at those crazy eyes
It's Monday but this is no ordinary high
'Cause even when it's wrong, it's right
It's Monday but this is no ordinary high As we ride and ride it'll only get clearer
Daddy's girl isn't comin' home tonight
But your morphine lips are gonna be a painkiller
I said this is no ordinary high Accidental overdose and it feels like it's intentional
I can show you how it goes, princess Look at those crazy eyes
It's Monday but this is no ordinary high
'Cause even when it's wrong, it's right
It's Monday but this is no ordinary high Daddy'll be worried
He locks up his baby dolls, yeah
Daddy'll be worried
From the windows she will fall Look at those crazy eyes
It's Monday but this is no ordinary high
'Cause even when it's wrong, it's right
It's Monday but this is no ordinary high Ordinary high
(Ordinary high)
Ordinary high
(Ordinary high) This is no ordinary
This is no ordinary
This is no ordinary high
