

Tear Down The Wall

Skull Fist

Deep in the void
My heart still bleeds
AzraelI am the only one
Here on the edge of life
Leaving this world behindDance on the edge of time
I think it is time, now
To take what is mineIt all turns to black
A prophet or fool
Who's acting like God
As wicked and cruelFollow my sign
As the mad gnome says
And now I'll dance
Into the sunTear down the wall
Let silence and madness reign
There is no future nor the past
Let us dwell in agonyTear down the wall
I'll wipe out starlight
Let us tear it down
Let us tear down the wallHe can't hold it back
Afraid of himself
The faith in his eyes
He is lifeless insideNothing is real
As the old gnome says
I think it is time, now
To take what is mineTear down the wall
My madness you will follow
Tear down the wall
And don't look backTear down the wall
There is no future nor the past
Let us tear down the wallThe void seems like a cold asylum
I search for the last leaf
Hope, how I can find the answers
If all guardian angels are gone?
