Single Girl

Lush

Single girl, I don't want to be a single girl
Single girl, I don't want to be a single girlDon't want to be on my own again tonight
Don't want to put out the lightSingle girl, I don't want to be a single girl
Single girl, who would want to be a single girlDon't want to talk to myself again tonight
Don't want to put out the lightWhen you abandoned me
Well, it was heaven sent
When I abandoned you
It was what you meant
Well, it was me that knew it
And it was you that went
Haven't changed our minds it was meant to beDon't want to clean up your mess again tonight
Don't want to be in a fight
And I can do what I want again tonight
With who I choose, it's alrightSingle girl, I just want to be a single girl
