

I Will Return to You

K's Choice

Today, there's nothing more to say
But someday I'll return to you
Today, things didn't go our way
Maybe tomorrow, I will return to you Today, I'd like to slip away from all this pain
Someday, I'll return to you
Today, I'd like to be a cell inside your vein
Maybe tomorrow, I will return to you Once more, I'd like to put a spider in your bed
For that, I will return to you
I want you to hear the things, I never said
For that, I will return to you, someday, I'll return to you Dry the rain inside my head
To hear the things, I never said
I will return to you To be a light beam through a cloud
To laugh at things I'm singing now
I will, I will return to you
I will return to you, to you I will return to you
Someday, I'll return to you
I will return to you
Maybe tomorrow, I will return to you
