Tidal Wave

Emma Forman

Can't believe that things have gone so wrong
All I want to do is forgive you and say I love you but it is so much harder than you will ever knowCos I can feel you being swept drifting far away
How could I compete with her tidal wave?
She's so beautiful even if you chose me over her how could I ever be sure you wouldn't be tempted?
She's so beautiful even if you do stay how could I ever be sure you wouldn't be tempted again?I hope you find peace in her love I pray she is not as cold as I suspect she is And if you survive her fury when she casts you aside then maybe there's a chance for us thenCos I can feel you being swept drifting far away
How could I compete with her tidal wave?
She's so beautiful even if you chose me over her
how could I ever be sure you wouldn't be tempted?
She's so beautiful even if you do stay how could I ever be sure you wouldn't be tempted again?Let her carry you away in her tidal wave
Let her carry you away in her tidal wave
Let her carry you away in her tidal wave
Let her carry you away in her tidal wave
Tidal wave
