

Grim Reaper

Ryan Caraveo

I'ma go as hard as I can dog,
Till the grim reaper come n take me.
I'm not afraid of falling to the very bottom,
No death don't intimidate me.
Cause I bleed the blood of a winner,
I can feel it all runnin' through my veins.
I know this might sound a little crazy to ya,
You wouldn't understand unless you was me.

I'm sick of all the bullies
Sick of all the classes
I'm done dealing with all of the bitch-assness
I'm not a cokehead
I'm coo-coo if you ask them
Grew up outcasted
Happy never lasted
Cruisin' 99
Rome would be the avenue
Fiends up and down the block
Searching for a bag or two
Girls selling sex
Crazy what your habit that I do
Still your boy always kept a happy attitude
Stay day dreamin 'bout what I could achieve
Passing grades in every class
But they were all D's
Never felt that school books was the calling for me
No one in my bloodline got a college degree
So we'll make our own way
Yeah we'll make our own way
Know its not a lot to ya'all but I done came a long way
Used to get lonely now I like the space
Show the family that we can think I finally found my place.

I'ma go as hard as I can dog,
Til' the grim reaper come n take me.
I'm not afraid of falling to the very bottom,
No death don't intimidate me.
Cause I bleed the blood of a winner,

I can feel it all runnin' through my veins.
I know this might sound a little crazy to ya,
You wouldn't understand unless you was me.

Till the grim reaper come and take me x3

Iâ€™ve been livin' life with my guard up
Tough skin I ainâ€™t lettin' anybody in
You seem nice so Iâ€™m sorry that you gotta deal
With the repercussions of what everybody did
Old friends turned to fiends who would die for grams
When they breathe hear the wheeze in their diaphragms
Remember you always hated on the crew
Now you tryna put our circles together like Venn diagrams
I can count up all my friends on two hands
Waving my middle fingers like this is my new dance
I gave em all a shot I won't give em a new chance
Shining all on my own
Like listen like new jams
Oooh man now it donâ€™t hurt so much
What I feel when you leave I ain't worth your touch
I'm invisible now you invisible now
I donâ€™t do it for the prize itâ€™s the principle now

I'ma go as hard as I can dog,
Til' the grim reaper come n take me.
I'm not afraid of falling to the very bottom,
No death don't intimidate me.
Cause I bleed the blood of a winner,
I can feel it all runnin' through my veins.
I know this might sound a little crazy to ya,
You wouldn't understand unless you was me.

Till the grim reaper come and take me x3
