Addicted

Randy Houser

Your love is a drug That I just can't get off of my shoulders There's never enough And I am the junkie that it's taken overI've never tasted something so pure You're either the death or the cure'Cause I'm achin', I'm sweatin' This lonely ain't helpin' If only you'd stay for the nightBeen hooked on that feeling That high that you're dealing Just look what you've done to my lifeI found what was missin' And I can't resist it Oh, baby, I'm addictedJust like alcohol Cigarettes and cocaine You start at my heart And you run through my veinsAnd I'm constantly cravin' I'm chancin' and chasin'And I'm achin, I'm sweatin This lonely ain't helpin' If only you'd stay for the nightBeen hooked on that feeling That high that you're dealing Just look what you've done to my lifeI found what was missin' And I can't resist it Yeah, baby, I'm addicted Yeah, baby, I'm addictedYour love is a drug That I just can't get
