Blame

Eager

Carrying the past upon my shoulders
Shame that weighs me down like a boulder
Underneath I'm calling out
Carrying my shame
Put myself through pain
In the end
You will take the blame
pain and suffering my heroes
The greatest sacrifice becomes a zero
Underneath I'm calling out
Carrying my shame
Put myself through pain
In the end
You will take the blame
Carrying my shame
Suffering is vain
In the end
You will take the blame
