

Three Dreams (feat. Horror Stories)

Syron

It's been three dreams
And I've undressed you in my mind
Taken time, got to know you in the realest way
But not the real
Dreamed that
All I thought about is you
But you wouldn't have a clue
For me to sleep you can make this dream real
For me to sleep you can make this dream real
For me to sleep you can make this dream real
For me to sleep you can make this dream real
I think I know
How the touch of your skin brings me in
Makes me weak while I sleep
And I think I know
How your lips feel on mine
Because I felt them before, three times
For me to sleep you can make this dream real
For me to sleep you can make this dream real
For me to sleep you can make this dream real
For me to sleep you can make this dream real
Baby, this is meant to be
Maybe I'll wake up and see you next to me
Maybe this is homicide
Maybe one day you'll be mine
The only thing I know is your name
