Theory Of Everything

Amaranthe

Hope we lost
Along the way as we go far
Into a world that's grown to dark
Forced and cruel emotionless electro-hearts
Build greed an mechanical warsCan no one save us from this lifeless shame
Tell my how to focus on what's left behind
Now it's our time to heal the painLet this earth renew
We will see it through
It's my theory of everything
We will wars undo
Make the oceans blue
Paint the heavens with stars
And I won't let it out of my heart
No we won't let this world fall apartTo a bleak synthetic species we have grown
We're heading into the unknown
Tell my why dystopia has filled our hearts
With grief and unmendable scarsCan no one save us from this lifeless shame
Will rise from this nightmare on our own
How can we take away the stainsLet this earth renew
We will see it through
It's my theory of everything
We will wars undo
Make the oceans blue
Paint the heavens with stars
And I won't let it out of my heart
No we won't let this world fall apartBreak down, Deny, My destiny
I came across what should be left alone
The will to die, infesting me
I am the product of insanityLet this earth renew
We will see it through
It's my theory of everything
We will wars undo
Make the oceans blue
Paint the heavens with stars
And I won't let it out of my heartLet it out of my heartLet this earth renew
We will see it through
It's my theory of everything
We will wars undo
Make the oceans blue

Paint the heavens with stars
And I won't let it out of my heart
No we won't let this world fall apart
