You Are Good

Jeff Deyo

Some would say that you cannot be found
And some would say that you are far away
But I know you're the god who lives in me
And I know you will always have my heart'Cause you are good
And your love endures forever
You are good
And your love endures forever
You are good
And your love endures forever
You are good
You are goodSome would say that you cannot be found
And some would say that you are far away
But I know you're the god who lives in me
And I know you will always have my heart'Cause you are good
And your love endures forever
You are good
And your love endures forever
You are good
And your love endures forever
You are good
You are goodYou are the only one
You are the one that I desire
You are the only one my kingYou are the only one
You are the one that I desire
You are the only one my king'Cause you are good
And your love endures forever
You are good
And your love endures forever
You are good
And your love endures forever
You are good
You are good'Cause you are good
And your love endures forever
You are good
And your love endures forever
You are good
And your love endures forever
You are good
You are goodYou are the only one

You are the one that I desire
You are the only one my kingYou are the only one
You are the one that I desire
You are the only one my king
