Killing For Love

JosÃ© GonzÃ¡lez

What's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love, kill for love
What's the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill for

You've got a heart on fire
Bursting with desire
You've got a heart filled with passion
Will you let it burn for hate or compassion

What's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love, kill for love
What's the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill for

What's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love
What's the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill for

Killing for love
Killing for love
Killing for love
Killing for love

You've got a heart on fire
Bursting with desire
You've got a heart filled with passion
Will you let it burn for hate or compassion

What's the point if you hate
Die and kill for love, kill for love
What's the point with a love
Makes you hate and kill for

Killing for love
Killing for love
Killing for love
