

Love and Devotion

Babyface

Love and Devotion thats what i bring you Honest Emotions thats what I feel Firing Desire whenever am near my love goes downChorus
And I want to love you whenever you come
I want to hold you and never let you go
I want to know you girl
I want you closer and I want you right now
Oh girlLove and Affection thats what I bring you Heart full of passion and girls thats for real Nothing is pleasure I promise to treasure and never let you downChorus
