

Home Again

Bleeding Hearts Syndicate

So youve been away
Its been a long long time now,
I cant believe youre back again
I thought Id be OK,
Be ready somehow,
But Im standing here
Like shot between the eyesBut this is a perfect day
For showin up again,
Just the perfect daySo how bout life in the city?
Whatever you wanted
Im glad youve found another way
Well theres nothing new about me,
Just been getting older
Now is that enough
To read between the lines?But this is a perfect day
For showin up again,
Just the perfect day
For coming home
