

Jaded

Open Hand

This highway divides one more day,
They said it's suicide for me to run away,
 How long will I survive,
 I think to myself,
 How far will this go,
 Only they know,
 One more day from suicide,
 I don't buy this shit,
These situations arise but it's ok,
 I see through jaded eyes,
 Don't worry I'm on my way,
 One fine day,
 I will be back,
 I'll return again,
 One fine day,
I said: "Hey man, I'm on my way."
 One fine day is all I need now.
