Shine

Hundred Reasons

And you tear into one another
As I sit back and watch again
This tainted pair do whatever
Don't realize the time they've spentShine forever, let it go
Burn forever, let it shine
Shine forever, let it go
Burn forever, don't you let goSo you part again for reasons
Knowing together you don't belong
So I'll walk away forever
Leave you to the hole that you've dugSo you wait for me to go now
