

Shine

Hundred Reasons

And you tear into one another
As I sit back and watch again
This tainted pair do whatever
Don't realize the time they've spent Shine forever, let it go
Burn forever, let it shine
Shine forever, let it go
Burn forever, don't you let go So you part again for reasons
Knowing together you don't belong
So I'll walk away forever
Leave you to the hole that you've dug So you wait for me to go now
