Coming Home

Stereomud

I want to say, I want to do better I need to start a new life
First thing's to let go of the time that's passed us by
I'd like to be the one that you call for when you're not sure what's right
Hope I'm not asking too much because I miss you
I watched you crawl, I made you suffer
And I'm so sorry I let you down
I am coming home to you as fast as I can
This time I won't let you down no
How can I get back it's been on my mind for far too long
I can never get it back all the time I wasted
But if you would let me in I swear
I'll be a better man and I'm so sorry I wasn't there
And I believe it's hard for you to picture you and me and everything's nice
This time I'm going to make sure I'm always in your life
If it takes a little longer than we thought for us to work this out
Hope at least you know I've always missed you
I watched you crawl, I made you suffer
And I'm so sorry I let you down
I am coming home to you as fast as I can
This time I won't let you down no
How can I get back it's been on my mind for far too long
I can never get it back all the time I wasted
But if you would let me in I swear
I'll be a better man and I'm so sorry I wasn't there
I am coming home, I am coming home
This time I won't let you down, I won't hurt you
How can I get back it's been on my mind for far too long
I can never get it back all the time I wasted
But if you would let me in I swear
I'll be a better man and I'm so sorry I wasn't there
