Letter

Justincase

Here is the letter that gives
My reasons we can't be together
You know that I don't want to hurt you
I just think it's for the betterSo take your time 'cause it's alright
I'm finally leaving
Just know I've thought all about it
And written down all of my reasonsI just find, there's things you were used to
That I never could do and I did try
But that's not how I liveI don't care anymore
If you think that I was in the wrong
And sometimes things don't work out
You know that it's time you moved onSomewhere between nice to meet you
And we're better apart
I lost the will to see you
The way that I did at the startI just find, there's things you were used to
That I never could do and I did try
But that's not how I liveI don't care anymore
If you think that I was in the wrong
And sometimes things don't work out
You know that it's time you moved onI don't care anymore
If you needed me there all along
And sometimes things don't work out
You know that it's time you moved onI don't care anymore
If you think that I was in the wrong
And sometimes things don't work out
You know that it's time you moved onI don't care anymore
If you think that I was in the wrong
And sometimes things don't work out
You know that it's time you moved onYou know that it's time you moved on
