

Nocturne

Sophie B. Hawkins

Nightmare bring me to the dawn
I must ride your body on
Deep inside me I know
You cant hide me from harmIm the secret that you bear
Born of anger and despair
Who will strangle me?
Who will untangle my hair?Come to me, I can see
Through the holes in your eyes
When I scream out in terror
Youre the one by my sideRun to me strong and pure
As the monsters child
Weve been captured for a lifetime
But were free when were wildSleep, my little darling
Dont you cry for Mama, shes all gone
Nightmare came and took her in his arms
Find your dark horse
And ride your course through the stormLay me down you can see
Through the rain in my eyes
That Ive no more to lose
And Ive nothing to hidePlaying in midnight fields
Of dreams exiled
We are strangers in the city
But were free when were wild
