

Hallelujah

The Tuten Brothers

Hallelujah

Iâ€™m running every red light

Trying to get out of town

I canâ€™t seem to get it right

No I canâ€™t slow it down

And itâ€™s hard to come home with this dust on my soul and these boots

But itâ€™s all that I know, your love is my only excuse

Hallelujah for grace, sing amen to the place that will open up its gates, you have a little faith, come on in

The dashboard knows everything, laid it all on the line

These backroads are made for me, theyâ€™re all I have here tonight

And itâ€™s hard to come home with this dust on my soul and these boots but itâ€™s all I know, your love is my only excuse

Chorus x 2

2 wrongs donâ€™t make a right so leave it, leave it

Love found me here tonight, believe it believe it

2 wrongs donâ€™t make right so leave it, leave it

Chorus x 2

And itâ€™s hard to come home with this dust on my soul and these boots but itâ€™s all that I know, your love is my only excuse
