Take My Pain

Before the Dawn

Paralysed, I cannot breath
Tearstained, unable to inhale
Kneeled down, face on the ground
Screaming aloud but cannot hear the soundI would have given my life
Why can't I give away my painFor my mind of child unbearable inside
Inner demons feeded by my mind
Four walls still closing in
Why I still feel when I'm dead withinI would have given my life
Why can't I give away my pain
