

It's Alright, Baby

Komeda

from patience and from pain the one who never ends will gain the lovely notes from score to score become the sound of the jealous call i am tired of being wasted i am so sick of being tired, yeah i'm sure that love existed long before the first word was pronounced Chorus 1 woohoo
it's alright, baby
it's a crazy world it's a bit absurd
woohoo
it's alright, sugar
it's a crazy world it's a bit absurd
woohoo
it's alright, honey
it's a crazy world it's a bit absurd
woohoo
it's alright, it's okay it is so crazy to put it all in place requires a special praise the single gesture of sweet emotion a single notion of bitter potion a strawberry flavored composition is all that it takes when the lyrics stand up and end the head is full of conclusions of the simple mind Chorus 2 woohoo
it's alright, baby
woohoo
it's alright, sugar
woohoo
it's alright, honey
woohoo
it's alright, it's okay
(Repeat once)
woohoo
