Tragedies Blows At Horizon

Immortal

A black day dawn at horizon
Where winter hearts our battlefieldsThe ultimate frost age desire
Oh snowflurry drifts these plainsSince the blast of primaries
We've conquered against the stormThroning with will
And the sound of battle never endsTragedies blows at horizon
We ride as one
Tragedies blows at horizon
Our battle rages onTragedies blows at horizon
We ride as one
Tragedies blows at horizon
Our battle rages onThundering columns of fire
Majestic against the breezeGleaming my sceptre at hand
The wind altogether silentFrozen of heart
Awaken from a time and risenBy the dying evening breeze
The sound of battle never endsTragedies blows at horizon
We ride as one
Tragedies blows at horizon
Our battle rages onTragedies blows at horizon
We ride as one
Tragedies blows at horizon
Our battle rages on
