No One

Cold

Well I can't ever really believe
No one was sent to get me
And I feel like I'm being erased
No one got left hereWell I'm all alone, no one was sent to get me
Well I'm all alone, no one got left here
But I'm fine, no one got left here
Well I'm fine, no one got left hereWell I can't even breathe when I see
The pictures sent without you
Well I feel like I'm being erased
No one got left hereWell I'm all alone, no one was sent to get me
I'm fine, no one got left here
Well I'm fine, no one got left hereBut I'm fine, no one got left here
Well I'm fine, no one got leftI'm so sick of this terrible instinct
It's so hard now, just to find you
I'm so sick of this terrible instinct
It's so hard now, just to find youSo sick of this terrible instinct
Well I can only find you
I'm so sick of this terrible instinct
Though I can only find youI'm fine, no one got left here
Well I'm fine, no one got left here
Well I'm fine, no one got left here
Well I'm fine, no one got left
