

I Have A Right

Sonata Arctica

Give me the right to be heard
To be seen, to be loved, to be free
To be everything I need,
To be me, to be safe
To believe in something
I have a right to be heard
To be seen, to be loved, to be free
To be everything I need
To be me, to be safe
To believe in something
Father there's a little flower,
Beautiful and different, all alone...
All alone...
Is it so dad, I'm not supposed to Make the world anew and be like you.
I'm not you...
I have a right to be heard
To be seen, to be loved, to be free
To be everything I need
To be me, to be safe
To believe in something
I have a right to be heard
To be seen, to be loved, to be free
To have everything I need
To be me, to be safe
To believe in something
Give me the eyes, so I see
Give me ears, so I hear
Give me love so I know what love is Give me the freedom to think
To believe in something
I have a right to be heard
To be seen, to be loved, to be free
To be everything I need
To be me, to be safe
To believe in something
[Spoken:]
I have a special right to grow up, and to develop physically and spiritually in a healthy and normal way.

Free, and with dignity.
I have the right to love, and understanding.
My parents have special responsibilities for my education and guidance.
I should be taught peace, understanding, tolerance, and friendship among all people.
So give me the gift
To hear, to see
The love, the freedom
To choose the things I feel
To be right for the world you'll leave me...
Give something!
Give me the right to be heard
To be seen, to be loved, to be free
To be everything I need,
To be me, to be safe
To believe in something
I have a right to be heard
To be seen, to be loved, to be free
To be everything I need
To be me, to be safe
To believe in something
I have a right to be heard
To be seen, to be loved, to be free
To be everything I need
To be me, to be safe
To believe in something
Right to be heard
To be seen, to be loved, to be free
To be everything I need
.. to be heard, to be seen
To be loved, to be free
To be everything I need (x3)
To be heard!
