DELERIUMNew! Tap highlighted lyrics to add Meanings, Special Memories, and Misheard Lyrics...A glimmer of hope

In the summer rain
Took a deep breath and
A leap of faith
Learn to let go
To see if you'd come back
To me
Wild at heart and floating on waves
Where do we land
After winds have changed Broken apart
To see if you'd come back
To me
Time will always show the cracks
Hiding deep in you
And time will slip right
through your fingers
Running circles 'round you
I want you to stay
I want you to stay
I want you to stayThe freedom to choose
The freedom to fly
Watching the world
As life passes by
The pendulum swings
No telling where
this will lead
A shift in the sands
A turn in the tide I'll be your water when your well runs dry
Echo my voice
Be the angel to watch Over meTime will always
show the cracks
Hiding deep in you

And time will slip right
through your fingers
Running circles 'round you

I want you to stay
I want you to stay

I want you to stay And time will slip right
through your fingers
I want you to stay
I want you to stay
I want you to stay
