

White Flag

David Usher

Took the acid in the afternoon
Just to be part of the scenery with all the lonely People there we are Took a trip out to the galaxy
I'm not looking for salvation just a taste of liberation
I said my friends
Like to sit all day and watch the stars bend I can see your white flag flying in the distance
I know that it's lonely there where you are
If everything is perfect tell me why you're hurting
It won't be long Took a trip out to the girly show
It was there i talked to jesus he said christ Don't you believe it
Another drink and we talked all night
I asked does it hurt to be you he said boy it hurts like hell
He said my friends
Like to sit all day and watch the stars bend I can see your white flag flying in the distance
I know that you're lonely there where you are
If everything's so perfect tell me why you're hurting
It won't be long
