What If

Jadon Lavik

What if i climbed the mountain what if i swam to that shore what if ever battle was victorious then would you love me more would you love me more what if i was everyone's first choice what if i went farther than before what if i stood high above the rest then would you love me more

would you love me more

you say that i belong to you apart from the things i do you say i belong to you i'm in awe of why you do (why you do, why you do) im in awe of you what if i ignored the hand that fed me what if i forgot to confess what if i stumbled down that mountain then would you love me less lord, would you love me less what if i was everyone's last choice what if I'm mixed in with the rest what i fail what i passed before

then would you love me less lord would you, would you love me less

you say that i belong to you
apart from the things i do
you say i belong to you i'm in awe of why you do (you do, you do, you do) what have i done, to deserve your son

he said to die for me what can i give i want to live

give me eyes to see in a world in that keeps changing there is one thing that i know is true your love is the standing there is nothing else i hold on to

you say that i belong to you
apart from the things i do
you say i belong to you i'm in awe of why you do (why you do) (2x)

the way you love me, the way you do, the way you do
the way you love me

Lyrics submitted by katie.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/