He Is Legend

Such a firecracker, that they run when you're lit
Labeled a criminal by your attacker and the mind bending hit
They get subliminalWire up the lie detector, sound the alarm for me
These cats are crooked detectives, trying to make us call for freeYou've got everybody else fooled, but we know who you are
You've got everybody else outraged
OutragedSuch a good faker, with a smile on his head
That ain't convincing me
The movers and the shakers want to climb into his bed
To create history
Set off the smoke detector, burn down your masterpiece
You are the only protector from this small town thiefYou've got everybody else fooled, but we know who you are
You've got everybody else outraged
OutragedYou'll never get away with this You'll never get away with this
Don't think for a minute that you're getting away with it
Holy Roller, Hellish Bandit, we've caught you red-handedWire up the lie detector, sound the alarm for me
These cats are crooked detectives, trying to make us call for free
Tell me who's laughing now
