

Free the Three

Zao

You failed to do your job
Superstitious cover up
They'll pay because of your mistakes
They'll pay because of your mistakes You lie, you lie, you lie and they pay
You fail, you fail, you fail and they pay
You lie, you lie, you lie and they pay
You fail, you fail, you fail and they pay Superstition, unholy children
Blinded vision, false ambition
Superstition, unholy children
Blinded vision, false ambition Can you show me how they're guilty?
Can you show me how they're guilty? You liars, you killers
You liars, you killers
You liars, you killers
You liars, you killers You fools of superstition, blame the unholy children
With your false ambition and your blinded vision
Free the three
Free the three You lie, you lie, you lie and they pay
You fail, you fail, you fail and they pay
You lie, you lie, you lie and they pay
You fail, you fail, you fail and they pay
